BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Tung began working in the legal sphere before his graduation from the Ho Chi Minh City Law University in 2003 and therefore has acquired 16-year experience as a practicing legal professional.

Prior to joining P&P in 2006, he practiced law at J&J Law Office and Luat Viet Legal Consultants successively. Mr. Tung is well qualified for providing legal advice on a wide range of issues within his areas of expertise e.g. Corporate and Investment Law. He has handled numbers of transactions related to corporate structuring, mergers and acquisitions, banking and real estate industries. His legal know how is enhanced by a Bachelor's Degree in Finance and Banking enabling him to combine legal and financial expertise in a way that is highly satisfactory to his clients. His recent graduation from the Master of Laws program has further reinforced his considerable legal skills.

Mr. Tung has spoken at numerous professional seminars on investment and business law and has been invited to give his opinion on several draft legislative texts by governmental agencies. He is also the author of quite a few stories published in The Saigon Times (Thoi Bao Kinh Te Sai Gon), The Entrepreneur & Law Review, (Doanh nhan va Phap Luat), The Business Review (Nhip Cau Dau Tu), Vietnam Investment Review (Bao Dau Tu) and other newspapers. He also has been invited to give lectures at the Judicial Academy since 2009 to date and some universities and colleges in Ho Chi Minh City on his specialty areas of practice.
